TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Niram Art Publishing House is interested in publishing the book Dramaturgia blagiana. Eseu despre absolutul estetic (Blaga’s Dramaturgy. Essay on the Aesthetic absolute) by Lucian Bagiu, as part of its academic collection “Vida universitaria”/“University Life”. The collection contains academic works written by professors from universities of several countries, translated into Spanish, promoted and launched in collaboration with academic institutions in Madrid such as Universidad Complutense or Universidad Autonoma.

Lucian Bagiu’s work was submitted to the editorial board for review and has been accepted for publication under the following terms.

The first edition of the book will be co-edited, both the publishing house and the author must participate with equal amounts to the costs for the publication of book.

The total cost for the translation, publication, distribution and promotion of the book in Spain is 6400 Euros, half of which will be covered by the publishing house. The remaining half, 3200 Euros, is to be covered by the author.

In case of a positive answer from the author, the publishing house will start the process of the publication of the book immediately.
