

EULAR ON-LINE COURSE ON RHEUMATIC DISEASES

This certifies that

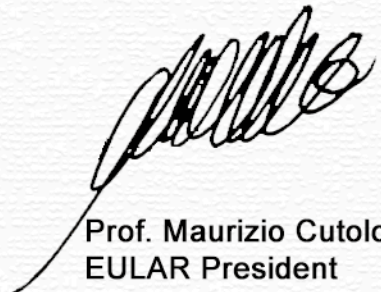

Pavlos STAMATIS

has participated in the EULAR On-line Course on Rheumatic Diseases from November 2014 – October 2015.

The course was organised by the European League against Rheumatism. It consists of 42 modules covering a wide range of specific topics on rheumatology. Each module includes an introduction to the subject, in-depth discussions and interactive clinical cases and ends with an assessment. One module corresponds to up to eight hours of study, totalling a maximum of 336 hours of educational training.

This certificate confirms that the assessments of all modules were made and the final examination, taken on 15 October 2015, was successfully passed with a score of 68.00 percent. The passmark was 70 percent. Your overall result of 68 percent passed as an exceptional decision.
